“Where is the road which leads us to Jesus Christ? It is before our eyes: it is the Church. It is our duty to recall to everyone, great and small, the absolute necessity we are under to have recourse to this Church in order to work out our eternal salvation.”

–POPE ST. PIUS X

A Message from Father Francis

“Lord, that I may see.” — Open the eyes of my soul, Lord

My Dear Friends In Christ,

It’s hard to know why Jesus went through the ritual of the spittle, the mud, and the water, in order to heal the man. He healed other blind people with a touch, or simply a word. It might well have been a test of faith. He sent the ten lepers on their way, and they were healed as they journeyed along. He sent the centurion home and, before he reached home he got word that his servant was healed. I often think that this is how Jesus heals many of us. We ask for his healing, and nothing seems to happen immediately. Maybe, after asking for his healing, we should go on our way, and expect to notice the healing taking place gradually as time goes by.

As the story unfolds, we notice that the man’s eyes were really opened, and that includes the eyes of his soul. Clearly Jesus was intent on healing the total person, or not at all. We don’t imagine him healing someone, and then having that person going away still filled with resentment against another. Such a person was not really healed at all. The man in today’s gospel was totally healed, and he ended up on his knees, worshipping Jesus.

A practical and simple prayer is “Lord, that I may see.” It is a short prayer, but when it comes from the depths of my heart, it is a powerful prayer. Remember that other blind man named Bartimeus? He was told that Jesus was passing by, and he was determined to get his attention. Those around him tried to silence him, but he shouted all the louder. And he also was cured. To another man Jesus asked the pointed question, “Do you want to be healed?”

The greatest good we can do for others is not by giving them money, though that can also be needed at times, but in revealing their own riches to them. It is good to affirm others and make them feel both loved and worthwhile. Many people have grown up with a poor self-image, and they just cannot see the good in themselves. This is another form of blindness, and it is a blindness in others that any one of us can heal. The most certain proof that the Spirit of God lives in you is your willingness and ability to affirm and bring a blessing to other people.

He is in our midst, he walks among us as the supreme healer, his hand ever ready to touch us, to take away our blindness, and free us from the shackles of sinful paralysis and despair. His church too has a healing mission, and it is ours, and we are all sent to be “the salt of the earth” and “the light of the world” as He is (Matthew 5:13-14). Let’s not think “How can I ensure my own survival?” but “How can I be salt and light? How can I take part in the Church’s mission of healing the wounded, consoling the dying, witnessing to human dignity and divine goodness?”

So too in all of us, it is the Lord and His grace that brings about our interior conversion. We must never fall into the temptation that our faith and charity is the result of our own strength or abilities. After the blind man’s encounter, it says “he worshipped Him.” As good stewards we should seek to imitate his example, falling down in thanksgiving and adoration for all of the grace and gifts the Lord has poured into our lives. Let us take a moment today to praise God most especially for the gifts of our Catholic faith and the Church.

See you at Mass!
Fr. Francis

P.S. We are so grateful to the Men’s Group along with all of the wonderful parishioners, who came to serve and support our Lenten Fish Fry’s this Lenten season! We are grateful and blessed to be surrounded by a community of wonderful people who give so much of their time, talents, and treasures to make this parish a truly special.

Stewardship Is What God Calls Us to Do

Throughout sacred scripture God calls us to be a giving people. The concepts of giving God our “first fruits” and of tithing a fair percent were first mentioned in the Old Testament. About half of Our Lord’s parables address the proper use of our resources and Jesus talks about money five times more than He talks about prayer. Generous giving is fundamental to our faith tradition. Any parish that truly wants to follow the teachings of Our Lord must teach and embrace stewardship. As the US Catholic Bishops' write in their Pastoral Letter on Stewardship, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response, "Once one chooses to become a disciple of Jesus Christ, stewardship is not an option."

Stewardship Is What Built Our Church

From the awe-inspiring European basilicas to the smallest rural churches in our own country, all of the churches, schools, hospitals and other Catholic agencies which we take for granted today have been built by previous generations giving generously of their time, talents and treasure. Auctions, raffles and golf tournaments did not build up the Church and they cannot maintain it. The Church today was built up because our ancestors in faith understood their responsibility to support the establishment of God's kingdom here on earth. They made God a priority in their lives and they generously shared no matter how much or how little they had.

Stewardship Increases Participation and Vitality in Parish Ministries

Without a stewardship perspective, many parishes find themselves using all of their time and talent to raise treasure. Instead of doing ministry to the poor, the needy or the spiritually hungry, parishes just do endless fundraising. In contrast, when a parish embraces stewardship, parishioners are invited to share their unique talents in many different forms of ministry. Parishes often see new forms of ministry develop when parishioners are asked to prayerfully discern what special skills and talents God might be calling them to share with their parish community.

Bill and Cathy Farney were an amazing couple who graced St. Pius X Parish for over 58 years. Bill passed along his collegiate track experience by coaching CYO track and field, and officiating college, high school, and grade school meets. Cathy was the cherished heart of their home, shaping their 5 children (Laura Cook, Sarah Gaither, Sue Mokris, Tim Farney, Chris Farney), 9 grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren with their wonderful examples of love, kindness, faith, and giving back. We honor their memory and their family with the 2nd Annual Bill and Cathy Farney Family Fun Walk and Run!

The Joe and Sharon Qualters Family are our Special Honorees for this year's Farney Family Fun Walk and Run. Joe and Sharon have been members of St. Pius for nearly 50 years with past ties to Little Flower, St. Andrews, Arsenal Technical HS, Cathedral HS, Bishop Chatard HS, and Butler University. Joe served his country in the US Army during the Korean War, following which he met the love of his life, Sharon, at Indiana National Bank. Joe retired as a Vice President and Branch Manager after decades of service to the bank. Sharon managed the daily activities of raising their 4 children, Joe Qualters, Kevin Qualters, Carol Burchard, and Mike Qualters, instilling in them their strong work ethic, the importance of their Catholic upbringing and schooling, the need to give back as life progressed, and the all encompassing principle that family always comes first. Joe and Sharon were married for 58 years before Sharon's passing in 2016, and very much enjoyed supporting their 4 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren in all of their activities. A fun fact which makes them such an appropriate Honoree for our Farney Event is that the Farney and Qualters families were neighbors in Arrowhead Estates for a number of years while their kids were growing up. Like the Farneys, we celebrate the Qualters deep and loving commitment to family, their Catholic faith and St. Pius X, Indianapolis, and our country. We truly value the example they set for all of us!
