April 7, 2024

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a Fountain of Mercy for us,

I Trust In You!

DIVINE MERCY

St. Pius X Catholic Church

WELCOME TO ST. PIUS X!

Whether you're just visiting us for a brief time, looking for a new parish home, are returning to the practice of your Catholic faith or are interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church, we're happy to have you here.

A parish is a community of believers and a spiritual family that is supporting and loving. It can be a place to grow spiritually, to put your faith into action, and use your gifts of time and talent as disciples of Christ. If you would like more information about how to make this parish your home, contact the parish office or scan this QR code.

“Where is the road which leads us to Jesus Christ? It is before our eyes: it is the Church. It is our duty to recall to everyone, great and small, the absolute necessity we are under to have recourse to this Church in order to work out our eternal salvation.”

—POPE ST. PIUS X

A Letter from Fr. Francis

My Dear Friends In Christ,

Most houses are well alarmed nowadays; the computerized alarm has become as basic an item as table and chairs. We also need to have good strong locks; long gone, at least in the cities and towns, are the days when you could just leave the key in the door, and let neighbors ramble in casually for a chat and a cup of tea. We are more fearful about our security than we used to be, and this fear and anxiety has led us to take more precautions to protect ourselves. Fear of what others can do to us tends to close us in on ourselves, not just in the physical sense of getting stronger door-locks, but also in other senses. We tend to be somewhat withdrawn around people whom we perceive to be critical. We are slow to open up to someone we think will judge us. We hesitate to share ideas and plans we might have with those who are known not to suffer fools gladly. Fear of others can often hold us back and stunt our growth.

In the gospel we find the disciples locking themselves into a room because they were afraid of the Jewish authorities. Even after an excited Mary Magdalene came to them from the empty tomb announcing that she had seen the Lord, this was not enough to overcome their fear. What had been done to Jesus could be done to them... which led to their hiding in self-imposed confinement. The turning point came when the risen Lord himself appeared to them behind their closed doors and helped them over their fear. He did this by breathing the Holy Spirit into them, filling them new energy and hope, freeing them from fear and releasing them to share in his mission. "As the Father sent me, so am I sending you," he said. In the power of the Spirit they came to life and went out from their self-imposed prison, to bear witness to the risen Lord. This is the picture of the disciples that Luke gives us in today's reading from Acts. He describes a community of believers, the church, witnessing to the resurrection both in word and by the quality of their living.

We can all find ourselves in the situation of those first disciples, locked in their hiding place. Any combination of the "slings and arrows of outrageous fortune" can water down our commitment to following the Lord. Like the disciples in today's gospel, we can be tempted to give up on our faith journey. The will to self-preservation can prevent us from doing what we are capable of doing with the Lord's help. The wounds we carry from earlier, failed initiatives make us hesitate to try again. Even when someone seems full of enthusiasm and hope like a Mary Magdalene, we shrug it off. We let them get on with it, while we hold back and stay safe. The gospel today suggests a way out of our self-imposed confinement. If Magdalene makes no impact on us, the Lord will find another way to enter our lives and to fill us with new life and energy for his service. No locked doors, nor even locked hearts, can keep him out. He finds a way to enter the space where we have chosen to retreat and he empowers us to resist what is holding us back. He does require some openness on our part; at the least some desire on our part to become what he is calling us to be. The risen Lord never ceases to recreate us and to renew us in his love. Easter is the season to celebrate the good news.

Just as the disciples were unmoved by the hopeful enthusiasm of Mary Magdalene who had seen the Lord, so Thomas was unmoved by the witness of the disciples who told him they too had seen the Lord. Thomas, it seems, was an even harder nut to crack than the other disciples. He is one of those people who insist on certain conditions being met before he makes a move, "Unless I see, I can't believe." As he had done with the other disciples, the Lord takes Thomas on his own terms. He accommodates himself to Thomas' conditions and says, "Put your finger here." The gospel today implies that the Lord meets us wherever we are. He takes us seriously in all our fears and doubts. The Lord is prepared to stand with us on our own ground, whatever that ground is, and from there he will speak to us a word suited to our personal state of mind and heart. We don't have to get ourselves to some particular place in order for the Lord to engage with us. He takes himself to where we are, wherever it is a place of fear or of doubt. We might pray this Easter season for the openness to receive the Lord's coming into the concrete circumstances of our own lives, so that we too might say with Thomas, "My Lord and my God." We might also pray that, like the Lord, we would receive others where they are, rather than where we would like them to be.

See you at Mass!
Fr. Francis

stewardship

Divine Mercy Sunday

"The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own..." - Acts 4:32
All that we are and all that we have is a gift from God! Think of your family, your friends, your life, your talents and your money – these are all gifts from God! We aren't really owners of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has blessed us with. We are called to be grateful and generous with all of our gifts for the benefit of others.

Building a Community of Stewardship

As we continue along in this season of Easter, we are invited to reflect on the lives of the early Christians. In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles we hear the wonderful account of them living in great unity and joy as they were "of one heart and soul." It says that "there was not a needy person among them" because everyone shared of their gifts for the good of the entire community.

This is the perfect model of a community where stewardship reigns. A parish community built on stewardship is one in which every member is welcomed, involved and nourished. The parish should be seen as our second home. It is where we join together with our brothers and sisters in Christ so that we can love and serve God side by side.

How well are we contributing to the building up of our community of stewardship? We must all play our own role in building up the Church. In the same way the early Christians offered all of themselves for the sake of the mission, we too should offer all of our gifts to the parish. We should spend time praying in the church and journeying with fellow parishioners through the joys and trials of their lives. Moreover, all of our talents and gifts should be offered up to the service of various ministries and apostolates within the parish. In this way, we will be able to echo the words from the first reading and joyfully proclaim: "There was not a needy person among them."

Summary

In the first reading we hear the wonderful account of the early Christians living a beautiful community of stewardship in which they were all "of one heart and soul." Likewise, in the same way the early Christians offered all of themselves for the sake of the Church, we too should offer the gifts of our time and talent to our parish community. In this way, we will be able to echo the words from the first reading and joyfully proclaim: "There was not a needy person among them."

Event concludes

Cost: $25 per person, $75 per family.
Each entrant receives a shirt and post event refreshments

Proceeds from this event will support the St. Pius X Building Fund on behalf of the Farney and Qualters families.

Bill and Cathy Farney were an amazing couple who graced St. Pius X Parish for over 58 years. Bill passed along his collegiate track experience by coaching CYO track and field, and officiating college, high school, and grade school meets. Cathy was the cherished heart of their home, shaping their 5 children (Laura Cook, Sarah Gaither, Sue Mokris, Tim Farney, Chris Farney), 9 grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren with their wonderful examples of love, kindness, faith, and giving back. We honor their memory and their family with the 2nd Annual Bill and Cathy Farney Family Fun Walk and Run!

The Joe and Sharon Qualters Family are our Special Honorees for this year's Farney Family Fun Walk and Run. Joe and Sharon have been members of St. Pius for nearly 50 years with past ties to Little Flower, St. Andrews, Arsenal Technical HS, Cathedral HS, Bishop Chatard HS, and Butler University. Joe served his country in the US Army during the Korean War, following which he met the love of his life, Sharon, at Indiana National Bank. Joe retired as a Vice President and Branch Manager after decades of service to the bank. Sharon managed the daily activities of raising their 4 children, Joe Qualters, Kevin Qualters, Carol Burchard, and Mike Qualters, instilling in them their strong work ethic, the importance of their Catholic upbringing and schooling, the need to give back as life progressed, and the all encompassing principle that family always comes first. Joe and Sharon were married for 58 years before Sharon's passing in 2016, and very much enjoyed supporting their 4 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren in all of their activities. A fun fact which makes them such an appropriate Honoree for our Farney Event is that the Farney and Qualters families were neighbors in Arrowhead Estates for a number of years while their kids were growing up. Like the Farneys, we celebrate the Qualters deep and loving commitment to family, their Catholic faith and St. Pius X, Indianapolis, and our country. We truly value the example they set for all of us!

For more information on sponsorship or participation, contact Tom McNulty (317-507-0688) / mcnultyre@gmail.com or Jenny Lis (317-440-7088) / Jenny.Bryant7@gmail.com.

Special Honorees Sharon and Joe Qualters, Event Namesakes Cathy and Bill Farney, and their families have been true bedrocks of our St. Pius and Indianapolis communities for over 50 years! It will be fun honoring them the morning of April 13th, then sharing some camaraderie and a little exercise with your fellow parishioners. Please consider a sponsorship or contribution, and join us to recognize them. Either contact Tom or Jenny, particularly with Sponsorships, or use the QR code. Thank-you!
